the competion and the promise of the contractor is pleasing as the gris will be able to use the field for their annual gymnasium exhibition. The an-nual cadet exhibition at which the cader battalion will be reviewed by the gover-nor, without doubt will surpass any previous showing owing to the ideal grounds to be used. The new campus grounds to be used. The new car affords more than sufficient space the drill.

The girls are working with determination towards the success of their annual character ball which will be held in the gymnasium. The fact that only girls will be admitted still is causing considerable talk among the boys, and it is a certainty that some of the prominent members of the boys will make an attempt to enter the gymnasium in disguise. The girls have been heard to remark that they will cut the hair of any boy who is found in the gymnasium in the dance.

The second year classes in French were given a treat Thursday. Mademoiselie Commande, who is instructing the language, sung several of the leading French sougs. The students highly enjoyed the singing of the French national byms. "La Marseillaise."

Coach 'Dad' Convill surveyed the bounds for the track Thursday and also staked the new position for the cadet battalion flag pole. The change in grounds will require the battalion to face front rather than east.

The different cooking classes, under in direction of Miss Caine, visited the colory of Hewlett Brothers Thursday
